Councilman Parker was caught napping. He has had his eagle eye on a bill against the city that he thought improper and has managed to hold it up for several months. Last night he heard the bill read off, as ordered paid, in the minutes of the previous meeting. He had been absent that evening and the bill had slipped through. The look of disgust on the councilman's face when he found that his vigilance had gone for naught because of one lapse, was worthy of being painted.

Beach and Bowers Ministers which appear at Fisher's opera house Monday evening are said to be one of the best of all white companies traveling.

From the Seattle Times we print the following: "Standing room only was the order before the ticket office closed on Saturday night at the opera house, the attraction being Beach and Bowers' minstrels. We feel safe in saying that no minstrel party ever succeeded in giving a more enjoyable performance here and those who were present were unanimous in their praise of the performance from the rising to the falling of the curtain. Sale of seats opens this morning at Griffin & Reed's."

The Chinese opium smoking cases in the police court were dismissed yesterday upon motion of the city attorney. The prosecuting witnesses asked for this action. The police have determined to prevent white persons from patronizing opium joints, but it would bankrupt the city to prosecute every Chinaman that smokes opium. In this case the white man forfeited his $20 bail and was deemed advisable to let the mongolians go, especially as the case promised to reach further than the city would care to carry it. But if another white person is caught smoking in the dens the Chinese may expect an unrelenting crusade, regardless of cost.

AWAKENING INTEREST.

The Selection of Councilmen at the Coming City Election.

The interest in the coming city election is not confined to the prospective candidates and their friends. The latter are concerned with the administrative officers, but the general interest has to do with the legislative part of the municipal government.

The financial condition of Astoria is not satisfactory to those upon whom the cost of government falls. The taxpayers of Astoria have a painful condition to confront. It is everywhere conceded that "something must be done," although no one is able to suggest now what that something is.

The general indebtedness of the city, exclusive of the water works, whose cost was a profitable investment, is heavy and we have nothing substantial to show for the money. Our tax rate of 1898 was nearly double that of Portland, and Astoria has no city hall, no bridges, no court house, "no anything" of an attractive and useful character that satisfactorily accounts to the taxpayer for the heavy drain.

We have only the fast decaying roadways that constantly need repairs and upon which no improvements can be made that can be called permanent. The publication of these matters does not hurt the city. It is the ignoring these conditions that daily injures Astoria. The public recognition of existing conditions will not drive away prospective investors. When capital seeks investment it consults the records—not the newspapers, and prefers casting its lot with a people who are ready to face and correct a bad situation to mingling with those who try to ignore it.

The present council can testify from its experience that it is easier to discover the need of a remedy than it is to find the remedy. But the incoming council will be expected to find some method for improving the situation and the citizens of Astoria are interested in the selection of competent councilmen.

MARRIED MEN WIN.

Closely Contested Bowling Match at the A. F. C.

For several days there has been much discussion as to whether the married or single men of the A. F. C. were the better bowlers. In order to settle the question, P. B. Sovey and Herman Wise, as captains respectively of the single and married members, selected teams and last night they met on the alleys.

As a result some are sadder and wiser than before. The Singles started out with a hurrah and won the first game by 21 pins but the married fellows settled down to business and handily won the second and third games. In the fourth the married led until the last frame when they "sloughed" and gave the game to the singles, there being no possibility of losing. The married won by 15 pins.

After the games the teams enjoyed an oyster supper at the expense of the bachelors.

All members of the A. F. C. and their lady friends are invited to witness the game tonight with the Y. M. C. A. of Portland.

THE PRIMARIES.

There was opposition to the regular ticket at the republican primaries yesterday. More correctly it was intended to be opposition, but the result was a woeful failure.

The opposition ticket that appeared in each of these wards was in the interest of Ex-Chief of Police Barry, it is said, but its only effect was to bring out more regular votes than might otherwise have been cast. The independent ticket only received from 18 to 15 votes in each ward.

FAVORABLE COMMENT.

Proposition to Find Out Where Astoria Stands Endorsed by All Sensible Men.

Evening News.

The Astorian's editorial on "A Look at the Situation" has stirred up a great deal of favorable comment in the city today. It is the general expression that it is a common sense business move for the chamber of commerce or Push club to appoint a reliable friend of Astoria to find out "where we are at," so we can get a move on.

AN IMPORTANT ENTERPRISE.

A Bit of Good News That is of More Importance to Astoria Than the Election.

The Trecoitt Packing Company has leased the Ford & Stokes building, formerly occupied by the Columbia Iron Works, and will engage in the manufacture of all coverage required for its rapidly increasing salmon packing business.

Astoria is to be congratulated on this addition to her industries. It is understood from Mr. Trecoitt that the company will not confine itself to its own requirements in this line, but will do a general coverage business, soliciting trade throughout this section of the country.

A BOYS CLUB.

A Good Movement Inaugurated by Rev. M. Curran.

A boys club was organized last evening in the basement of the Congregational church, by Rev. Mr. Curran. The club has for its object the moral, intellectual and social welfare of its members. The boys were very enthusiastic over the project and took hold of it with a will.

The following officers were elected: President, Willis Wood; vice-president, Crouchy; secretary, Will Barker; treasurer, Will Morton; sergeant at arms, Allan Hughes.

AN IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a positive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. GRIFFIN & REED.

The action of the council in extending the time asked for by Mr. Keutner in regard to the new street car deal is generally approved. The matter of time is really of little consequence to the city in this instance for if the deal is not consummated the matter will be in no worse shape than it is now, and at the present time it is considered that Astoria can hardly be too liberal in its inducements for outside capital to come in.

Numerous burglaries have been annoying the people of Nehalem Valley and one house has been burned by the offender. The finger of suspicion pointed toward a rancher named Axel Isakson and he was arrested and bound over to await the action of the grand jury. He came to town and secured bonds, which were placed at $250, with A. Danielson and L. E. Howe as sureties. He secured his bondsmen by a mortgage on his place.
